ITEMS OF INTEREST

“Secret Sisters” is still going on. If you have cards and/or gifts, you can still bring them to the church building. If you or your Secret Sister is not attending for now, feel free to still mail them.

Locklandchristian.org is the church’s web site. Its format is very new (for which we thank Jim Null). Included are videos that we recorded during our time away from the building. Very soon, we will also include 5-minute devotions, one per week.

The Prayer List is updated each week and copies are available. If you have requests, please mark your attendance card or you can leave a message at the church.

New Roof (and other repairs) are needed at the church building. The middle section over the offices and classrooms is finally getting the replacement. The AC unit is in constant need of attention. A plumbing repair in the ladies’ restroom costed a few extra dollars. Your continued tithes and offerings help with these things. Thank you for your generosity. Extra gifts are always welcome. See the side note in yellow on this page for more information.
